

David J. Wallin

Director, Whitelaw Twining

David Wallin will be presenting at the British Columbia Association of Kinesiologists on Saturday May 4, 2013 from 9:30am to 11:00am. David will be speaking on “how do Kinesiologists fit into the mix of regulated and unregulated health professions, what are the key regulations that they need to be aware of. The application of common law as it relates to treating clients.”

For nearly 20 years, the primary focus of David Wallin's practice has been in handling bodily injury claims. David is the Chair of Whitelaw Twining's ICBC Injury Claims Group. This practice group is dedicated to assisting individuals who have been seriously injured in motor vehicle accidents. David also acts on behalf of bodily injury plaintiffs involved in aviation and boating accidents, as well as occupiers liability claims and recreational injury claims.

David has a special interest in handling claims involving chronic neuromuscular / musculoskeletal injuries such as thoracic outlet syndrome, temporomandibular joint disorder, reflex sympathetic dystrophy / complex regional pain syndrome, fibromyalgia, facet joint injuries and chronic pain, as well as psychiatric, orthopaedic and brain injury claims.

David appears frequently as counsel at all court levels in British Columbia, including the Federal Court of Canada and the Federal Court of Appeal. David also regularly appears as counsel before various provincial administrative boards and tribunals, such as WCAT. He is a frequent presenter at various insurance industry and bodily injury conferences.

If you are interested in attending David’s presentation please contact:

The British Columbia Association of Kinesiologists
102-211 Columbia Street
Vancouver, BC V6A 2R5
Phone: 604.601.5100
Email: office@bcak.bc.ca
Website: www.bcak.bc.ca